

Garlic Mustard

Mustard Family
(Alliaria officinalis)

Garlic Mustard has triangular leaves that are coarsely toothed. When crushed, they have the odor of garlic. It has small white flowers. It is an alien, invasive species that grows 1-3 feet high on roadsides and in open woods. It blooms in spring and early summer.