

Mouse-ear Chickweed

Pink Family

(Cerastium vulgatum)

Mouse-ear Chickweed has hairy, stalkless oval leaves and sticky-hairy stems. The flowers are about $\frac{1}{4}$ inch wide with white petals deeply cleft. It grows 6-18 inches high in waste places and on edges. It blooms spring to fall.