

Starry

False Solomon's Seal

Lily Family
(Smilacina stellata)

Starry False Solomon's Seal has an unbranched starry white flower cluster. The leaves clasp the zigzag stem. Its berries are nearly black. It grows 1-2 feet high in moist open places and dunes. It blooms in late spring and early summer.

Native species.