

Downy Yellow Violet

Violet Family
(Viola pubescens)

Downy Yellow Violet has broad, heart-shaped leaves that are prominently veined. The lower of its 5 petals has purple veins and is spurred at the base. It grows 6-16 inches high in dry woods. It blooms in the spring. Smooth Yellow Violet is now considered the same species.

Native species.