

Marsh Marigold

Buttercup Family
(Caltha palustris)

Marsh Marigold is a showy spring flower that grows in swamps, meadows or other wet areas. It has 5 to 9 deep yellow sepals and no petals. The long-stalked leaves are heart-shaped. It is strictly a spring bloomer.

Native species.