

Moth Mullein

Snapdragon Family
(Verbascum blattaria)

Moth Mullein has white or yellow flowers tinged with purple at the base. The anthers are orange and the stamens have purplish beards. They grow in a loose raceme. The buds are buttonlike. The 2-4 foot plant is slender with scant foliage. It grows in fields and on roadsides and blooms in the summer and fall.