

Figwort

Snapdragon Family
(Scrophularia lanceolata)

Figwort has tiny flowers that are shiny green on the outside and brown within. The leaves are coarsely toothed, egg-shaped and long-stemmed. It grows 3-8 feet high on wood edges and in thickets. It blooms in late spring and early summer.

Native species.