

Lance-leaved Goldenrod

Composite Family
(Solidago graminifolia)

Native species.

Lance-leaved Goldenrod is a common flat-topped goldenrod with linear leaves. The leaves are about $\frac{1}{4}$ inch wide with 3-5 veins. They have untoothed edges. It grows 2-4 feet high in moist to dry open soil. It blooms summer and fall.