

Lesser Celandine

Buttercup Family
(Ranunculus ficaria)

Lesser Celandine has buttercup-like flowers with 8 glossy petals. Each flower is solitary. The long-stalked leaves are heart-shaped and bluntly toothed. It grows 2 to 6 inches high in damp shade. It is a garden escape that blooms in the spring.